

Dream Killers... September 23, 2026... Chapter 4 "Dream Your Way Out"

- Introduction:

1. Page 31, 2nd paragraph
2. "Obstacles into Opportunities... God uses everything..."
3. Even though _____, I will continue to believe (dream) that God can _____.

- Back Story: Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and JOSEPH

1. Abraham

2. Isaac

3. Jacob

Sometimes we are thrown into situations because someone else put us there. Other times, we make our own beds and are forced to lie in them. Neither of these scenarios forces God to abandon the dream over your life.

4. Joseph

History does not dictate response.

Old patterns do not have to dictate future practices.

The chaos does not have to be reproduced.

- The Pit was just a hole in the ground until Joseph was thrown into it. That's when the Pit was given a purpose.
- 1. Don't wait to dream until you are out of the pit.
- 2. Raley says, "Your most disastrous and heart-wrenching moments can actually become tremendous seasons of dream development." (page 31)
- 3. Fill in the blank: Even though all I have seen is _____, I believe (dream) that God has seen _____.

- 4. Don't let where you are determine who you are.

- John 10:10

- 1. Fill in the blank: Even when _____ tries to destroy the dream God placed in me, I will continue to believe that He can use _____ to build me for the purpose of the dream.

- Genesis 50:20

1. Fill in the blank: Even though _____ was meant to stop me and the dream, I choose to believe that God is still working to bring about _____.
